

WHAT I'M WATCHING

FORMER PUSSYCAT DOLL KIMBERLY WYATT

Walking Dead

I'VE always liked Andrew Lincoln since seeing him in Love Actually. I like scary things and the Walking Dead always leaves me wanting more. Sometimes I feel it has run into a dead end but then you'll get a brilliant episode that leaves you on the edge of your seat. I also love the character Daryl Dixon. I grew up in Missouri and had relatives like him.

Grand Designs

I'M interested when they use reclaimed materials and try to build environmentally sustainable houses. My goal is to have a sustainable home. I'd love to be self-sufficient. I have a wormery in my kitchen and do my own composting. And we save all our paper, shred it and make paper bricks for a future fireplace.

Drunk History

A COMEDIAN comes on and tells historical stories but the facts might not be correct as they're drunk. The stories they tell are re-enacted by actors. Tom Davis, who I worked with on Murder In Successville, was hilarious. I had such a good time doing Murder

In Successville. You don't know what scenarios they're presenting you with so you just have to go along with it all and have fun. I'd love to do more comedy. AW
