

A peek inside Doll's house

FORMER Pussycat Doll and Celebrity Masterchef winner Kimberly Wyatt, 34, lives with husband Max Rogers, 33, 15-month-old daughter Willow and pet dogs Cupid and Ty, in south west London. We caught up with her in the heart of her home, the kitchen.

Q: Why is this your favourite room?
I love the kitchen because it is the hub of my family life. My husband and I love cooking together with our daughter Willow watching over us in her high chair. Then we like a little dance while we clean up. When we entertain, everyone ends up in our kitchen. Some of my favourite memories have been made in there.

Q: What's your most treasured item?
My apron. I designed it myself with my very good friend Wendy Benstead, who is a costume maker. It reflects my belief in sustainable fashion while being a beautiful piece, I feel excited to put it on when I'm making lovely food for the family and entertaining friends.

Q: Tell me about the best moment you've had in here...

Spending days of prep with Max getting all the goodies ready for both Thanksgiving and Christmas.

We put the music on, get our heads down and prep for days before the big events. These shared moments are so special to us.

Willow also said her first word in the kitchen, which was apple. That will always be a favourite memory.

Q: ... And the worst?

I did all my practice sessions for MasterChef in my kitchen. Of course, at times it was stressful but it definitely paid off. So I would probably say the late-night sessions that went wrong and ended in tears!

Q: Who's the most famous person you've had in this room?

Ashley Roberts is one of my nearest and dearest so she often pops in for a cup of tea and a catch-up and a squeeze with Willow.

Q: What do you do to relax in here?

Read my cookbooks, create meal plans and enjoy therapeutic cooking and baking for the family or simply just share a cup of tea with Max while Willow bangs around in her high chair.

Q: What's the oldest item in this room?

Antique scales from the 1930s, I love them!

Q: Would you prefer to live in the countryside or the city?

Countryside - I'm a country girl at heart. I love nature and feel calmer when I am surrounded by the beauty of the natural world. My dream is to one day have a sustainable home surrounded by nature and gardens. I think becoming more sustainable is the best thing I can do for my family and I. Certainly it's the best lesson I can pass to my children.

Q: Do you have any interior design inspirations?

I have friends in Woburn who live in an old house amid the beautiful English countryside and surrounded by animals. The home is filled with a mix of antiques, fine art, and crackling fires. Max and I are also very inspired by the interior design of Kevin Spacey's character's homes in House of Cards.
